A REPLY TO THE INDEPENDENT ON
WORK OF THE CONVENTION.

The Independent in its issue of the 25th instant has an editorial criticizing the action of the late Democratic convention at Reno. The editor makes a very plausible showing to support his position by arguing well. The Independent says the writer applied the term convention to the State central committee, which is true. The term convention was used advisedly and with no intention to deceive or misrepresent in any particular. When the committee took the functions and prerogatives of a convention, which, according to usage in the Democratic party it had the right to do, the writer applied to the committee when in session and to its action the term convention.

When the committee took the character of a convention by assuming the duties and exercising the rights of a convention, the JOURNAL applied a term that covers and designates a body convened by direct action of the people. It has been a usage in the party for fifty years, to the personal knowledge of the writer, for committees to assume the powers of conventions, and to take the authority of the people at a primary election without their consent and use it by appointing delegates to conventions, State or national, which is in opposition to legitimate proceeding.

During the time mentioned there has been continued objection made to the usurpation of authority by committees.
The writer continued to object to the irregular methods until he came to the conclusion that the usurpation had been ratified by time and ceased to make objection. It is clearly the work of a convention to appoint delegates to a national convention, and is not the work of a State central committee as such, and it was not the purpose of the JOURNAL to admit a usurpation by the committee by designating the work as the action of a State central committee, which will explain the use of the word convention.

The writer knew before it came together that the committee intended to appoint delegates to the national convention, but no objection was made to its assuming the character by doing the work of a convention; as before stated time has ratified the usage.

The Independent is of the opinion that the work would have been proper for a convention fresh from the people.
It is proper to give the language used, which is: "If these delegates had been elected by a State convention there would have been no grounds for complaint. The committee exceeded its authority in going outside of party lines to elect these men."

When Editor Booher admits that a convention could have, without violation of principle, done the work of the committee, there can be no violation of principle, because the appointment of these men was made by the committee when acting as a convention, or, if made by the committee without taking the form of a convention, the result respecting the principle involved would be the same.

When the committee took the authority to appoint it also took the authority incident to appointment. There was no half way place where the committee could unload a part of the authority it had taken. It could have refused to use it, but could not throw it off at pleasure by saying it does not belong to the power to select, because that power had been appropriated.
If a convention could have done that which the committee did do, the committee under the authority appropriated had the power, or all that it did do was wrong in principle, which can not be charged to the committee for reasons stated.

The editor consented to the original appropriation of authority to appoint —may he done more, he was one of the appropriators, he was and is a member of the committee and for that cause is not in a position to object to the work that he was a part of the means to consummate. The ultimate fact, including the appointment of delegates, is the part of the proceedings from its stated position that the JOURNAL is called on to notice, and, upon a review of the authority, its source and use, it is persuaded that no principle is violated by the appointment of three Silver men as delegates to the National convention.

Respecting the methods used to do the work in convention, the writer is not in a position to discuss them. He has no personal information that would justify any criticism upon the action of any member of the body, and he will not under the circumstances assume the right to discuss them, but it is proper to say that the action of the convention is binding upon its members and upon the party till a change by proper authority is made, which change would be by action of the committee as a convention or by action of a party convention direct from the people.

It is not within the line of the JOUR-NAL'S position to discuss or suggest what any gentleman, chosen as a delegate from the silver party, will do in the event there is no fusion by the parties on State issues but, it can say very properly that these men are gentlemen who will act their part as honorable men should, under any circumstances. It is just and courteous to leave the future in their hands without question respecting their action under any circumstances. It is the observation of the writer that a man works best when he is conscious that he is upon his standing as a man, should he fail under that condition to show there is truth and honor in him he will need watching. There is not one of the gentlemen appointed from the silver party who is that man. The editor of the Independent has frankly presented his objections and has supported them as a trained debator should. It is refreshing in these times to meet frankness which is an accompaniment to machoood.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself began to catch cold we begin to use the cough remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEYER, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.
It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N.Y.) dairyman called at the drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. HAPPENINGS

The Try-out Today, Nomination of Officers and Basketball Game.

Today the University track team try out will take place at the fair grounds. The handicap races will prove interesting events. An admission of only ten cents will be charged. Everybody is invited. The proceeds will be devoted to purchasing uniforms for the team. The winners will compose the team to compete with Stanford on the latter's grounds, May 5th.
The defeat of the U. of N. basketball team a week ago, did them heaps of good. They realize now that it requires constant and hard practice to gain victories over first-class teams. They are training hard and conscientiously for the game on the 5th of May when the Palo Alto team, the champions of the Pacific coast, will come up with the intention of winning back the laurels they lost to Nevada a year ago.
The following have been nominated for the various offices of the athletic association. The election takes place next week:
The constitution of the athletic association has been changed, so that meetings will hereafter be held bi-monthly instead of yearly. A majority vote will elect in the future instead of plurality as in the past. Officers are to be nominated in open meeting one week prior to election. Other minor details were changed.

Slew a Wildcat.
Last evening a wildcat was killed within the city limits. Frank Berry is reported to be the successful marksman. The feline had escaped from captivity and, while resisting capture, was loath to leave a locality where are so many chicken coops to visit when the moon is low in the western sky.

COMMITTEES

The Reno Improvement Association Makes Its Selections.

The Reno Improvement Association started its career a year ago under a bright and glowing star. It had high ideas and aspirations, but, with the exception of the Protection committee, it peacefully slumbered throughout the year.
On this its first anniversary, it gets a quickening impulse and proceeds to appoint new sub-committees. Here they are as nearly as the lists are completed:

A NEVADA
COPPER MINE

Joseph Siegel, vice-president and general manager of the Vulcan Copper Company, arrived from Siegelville last evening.
He reports that fifty miners are at work on the company's mines. They are drifting on the 200 foot level. As soon as the new hoisting works are completed the three-compartment shaft will be sunk several hundred feet deep.
The ore averages five per cent in copper, besides low values in gold and silver. On the surface the ledge or zone is 400 feet across. On the 100-foot level the ore body has been followed on the strike a distance of 200 feet, and 25-foot crosscuts have been run, with the ore still in the face of the drifts.
Siegelville is becoming quite a village. The smelter is being reconstructed according to suggestion made by Professor R. D. Jackson, who recently experted the mine. It is being converted into a reverberatory furnace. The company owns the well known Columbus coal fields and has a force of ten men at work developing the veins. There are six outcroppings of semi-bituminous coal on the property. The veins are from three to nine feet in width. The coal will not be coked but will be used raw in the smelter. The Vulcan Company has in the last year spent $175,000 developing its mines and the prospects are excellent for them to get returns on this investment in a few months.

Wedded and Parted.

A California couple were granted a license and tied up in jig time yesterday.
A divorce was granted in the case of Gould versus Gould.
Lillian E. Harrington has sued for a divorce from J. M. Harrington on the grounds of habitual drunkenness and extreme cruelty.

Married at Lovelock.

Miss Nellie Williams and Will Carpenter were married in Lovelock Thursday afternoon at 4. They left the same night for Reno where they visited friends yesterday and continued on to San Francisco last night where they will pass their honeymoon.

A Vicious Anthropoid.

A little son of Harry McDuffee is suffering from a badly lacerated hand. The evening the animal show was here he got too familiar with one of "da monk," and the result was as above recorded.

WAS FIRED
BY HOBOS

Tramps Burn a Roof That Sheltered Them on Wintry Nights.

An early morning blaze occurred yesterday at the edge of town. The Bailey slaughter house, this side of the Reduction Works was discovered on fire a little before 7 o'clock. The department was informed and an alarm was sounded. The fire laddies assembled at the engine house and held a caucus. It was decided that as the fire was beyond the corporation limits and as it was too late to save the building they would not send the apparatus out. There is only one span of horses in the engine house and the department rules are that they cannot be taken outside bounds.
The fire was presumably started by tramps as the house was near the track and since it has been unused the hobos congregated there nightly.
Fulton & Taylor, the borax men, purchased the property some time ago and intended tearing it down in the near future. The insurance amounted to $1,000 in the Phoenix of Hartford. This sum will probably cover the loss.

THE FIREBUG
TRIES AGAIN

There was another incendiary blaze in town last evening. Fortunately it was discovered before it made great headway and extinguished without calling out the department.
The fire occurred in the same locality in which the miscreant has been operating so successfully for the past few months. The name of the suspect is on everybody's lips, but the evidence still seems insufficient to cause his arrest.
About 5:30 last evening fire was discovered in the division wall between Merklinger's and Bunoli's shops. A ladder was put in position and a few buckets of water did the rest. The damage was nominal.

A Reno Oil Company.

F. M. Hopkins, vice-president of the California consolidated oil company, is in Reno after a visit to the oil fields. Mr. Hopkins says that his company will begin boring in twenty or thirty days. The properties are situated in the famous Coalinga and Kern river districts. The C. O. O. Co. was incorporated here and much of the stock is held by Renoites.

Census Marshal Appointed.

A meeting of the Reno school board was held Thursday evening. The term of the appointment of Miss Ede to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Walts, was extended to the end of the school year. J. A. Bonham was appointed school census marshal.
